

Rebuke to Pope Francis

for not knowing the Bible

Pope Francis, you obviously

- do not know the Bible.¹
- are not a theologian.

“Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ.”²

I. Rigidity.

We rebuke you, Pope Francis, because you have harped upon a supposed sin of rigidity, but rigidity is exactly what the Holy Spirit commands, in numerous verses.

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace on earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; and a man’s foes will be those of his own household. He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and he who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me.”³

In all these sentences, the most extreme rigidity is demonstrated, culminating in the rigidity of the cross,⁴ which is so rigid as to pass through death.

In view of temporal upheavals, the Holy Spirit commands, “Be rigid as a ‘stake’: Hold fast the doctrines which you were taught, whether by word or letter from us,”⁵ elsewhere adding, “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever; do not be led astray by diverse and strange heresies.”⁶ Jesus Christ also, in the Book of Revelation, twice exhorts some of the churches to do nothing, except “Hold fast what you have until I come.”⁷

Indeed, there are numerous metaphors of rigidity in the Bible, including . . .

- the House built upon rock,⁸
- the vineyard enclosed with a hedge,⁹

¹ The statement applies both to you, and to your Ghost Writer, Archbishop Victor Manuel Fernandez, as will be evident within, from the numerous misbehaviors and errors in Fratelli Tutti, and Amoris Laetitia, which he authored.

- keeping new wine in new wineskins,¹¹
- the restrictive net cast into the sea,¹² and
- the Holy Christian Priesthood, as a stone house.¹³

But beyond this, Rigidity is an expression of a father's love, the pre-condition for identity, virtue,¹⁴ and order, among his children. E.g., pursuant to fostering a communal identity, the apostles command rigid .

- "traditions" in dress (hair-coverings for women);¹⁵
- regulation of even those with Charismatic gifts, "...for God is not an author of confusion;"¹⁶
- sub-degrees & behaviors of those ordained;¹⁷ and not ordained;¹⁸
- suspicion of new spirits.¹⁹

Here we see that Rigidity is also a characteristic of Order, enabling an entire emergent Community (the Church), replicable on the macroscopic scale.

And of course, individuals are called to rigidity, not just against . . .

- Sin; but even mere
- Lawlessness;²⁰ and even
- slackness in Virtue.²¹

For indeed, our rigidity is based upon childlike "abiding in" "what [we] heard from the beginning"²² i.e, based upon our glorious "Indietrismo," which is

*'foolishness to Freemasons, and a stumbling block to Neo-Marxists.'*²³

Pope Francis, if you can admit to nothing else, at least admit to this: You have been a father of disorder. Haven't you said so, yourself? "I want the confusion."²⁴

We rebuke you, Pope Francis, because you've managed to oppose each and every 1 of the 7 churches, in the Book of Revelation. In so doing you have demonstrated that you do not have anything like the true sense of Christianity in this Gospel Age, but disdain for the existence of Christians.

To the Church of Ephesus, the Lord commanded them to "recover their first love;" but you have removed the first love of so many of our brothers, those who in the present day-and-age best fulfill the 'type' of the church of Ephesus, which was the one church that contained all 7 candles, all the spiritual perfections of all other churches, today as the Tridentine-Mass-loving Catholics. To these, you have not only encouraged them to forget their first love, but even prohibited their first love,²⁵ directly against the Will of God, which will be to your public eternal disgrace.²⁸

To the Church of Smyrna, the Lord says that they will be thrown into prison, and some will die. What church is this today, except the suffering, persecuted church in China, which you sold to their own persecutors, the Chinese Communist Party, some allege, for a bribe of $2 billion,²⁶ which, if true, would be the single greatest act—not just of Lay Investiture or Simony—but even of Judas-level, treasonous selling of the Body of Christ,²⁷ by their shepherd, to their slaughters: Have you never heard the terrifying punishments that God metes out to shepherds who do this?^{27,28} It is reported, that by your secret Accord, you have agreed that Chinese youth under age 18 will not even be evangelized!^{26,29} As if their souls don't matter; as if Chinese Catholics should behave like teenage-baptizing-Anabaptists! The former primate of China, Cardinal Zen, himself on trial thanks to your Accord, says that the church is being "murdered."³⁰

To the Church of Pergamum, a church living next to the megaphone of "Satan's Throne," the Lord praises them for not denying His name. But, while you haven't denied the Lord's name, yet you have effectively done so, denying His words, His gospel of freedom from sin, in your infamous encyclical Fratelli Tutti, where you were so precipitously headlong eager, to cooperate with your allies, the geopolitical authors of the UN's utopian 17 Sustainable Development Goals [SDGs],^{31,125,32} that, despite the gospel's distinction between "neighbor" and "brother," you conferred the name of "brother" upon the entire world, as the Freemasons have long wished popes to do, even adopting the French Revolution's motto, "Liberty, Equality, & Fraternity,"³³ thus enabling even them, the Church's greatest enemies, to praise your encyclical.³⁴ But if that were not enough, you were so blinded and smitten by this utopian endeavor, so ready and willing to hide controversial beliefs, that, in your 51,000 words, . . .

- you entirely ignored Christ's words, except for 3 quotes, in 2 of which you reversed Christ's manifest intent, and in none of which did you preach back to the World;
- there was almost no mention even of sin, much less that fatal flaw, that Achilles' Heel of all utopianisms, namely Original Sin, the failure to account for which, History shows, dooms all governments & utopias, not just to unplanned, punitive Draconianism, but to wholesale capture by careerist liars.³⁵

But the moral way,³⁶ the way of the Church of Pergamum, is to not cooperate, living it as it is next to "Satan's Throne," today's Woke Neo-Marxism, which has fully captured nearly all institutions in—not just Academia, but spectacularly, also—the Media, Corporate, Government, and Educational sectors, as well, as it intended.³⁷ Surely, there can be no universal fraternity when all is controlled by a united front whose primary means of amassing power is by canceling—tearing down, "dismantling," shaming, and perpetually indebting—all peoples, institutions, identities, even word-concepts, for supposedly past historical transgressions, to make them all beholden to itself, as the sole, impartial referee, judge, score-settler, and identity-giver?³⁸ Such would indeed be a fraternity of mutually-confessed sin, but without Christ's or the Church's atoning forgiveness, and instead only Herbert Marcuse & Paulo Freire's successors' social credit scores.³⁹ But you indeed have allied with them, using their jargon, legitimizing

³⁴ The World Meeting on Human Fraternity's document again conflated a theological "Neighbor," with a "Brother." Additionally, it never once mentioned the names "Jesus," "Christ," or "God." To this extent, it is of the spirit of Antichrist, for (1 John 4:3-4) "Whatever spirit does not confess Jesus Christ is not of God. And this is that of Antichrist." "Declaration on Human Fraternity," Vatican, June 10, 2023, accessed June 28, 2023 at press.vatican.va/content/salastampa/en/info/2023/06/10/230610.html .

³⁵ Consider the failure of the following sin-disregarding utopian experiments: Nazism, Communism (Soviet Russia, China, Cambodia, North Korea, Venezuela, Israeli Kibbutzim, Jonestown); numerous charismatic-leader-centered religious cults; notoriously unstable celebrity lives (Hollywood, Las Vegas, Professional sports, etc.); even luxury universities.

their theories, pursuing their utopian goals.⁴⁰ *The Apostolic salt hasn't just lost its taste, but actually WANTS to be thrown out and trampled!*⁴¹

To the Church of Thyatira, the Lord commanded sexual integrity, and to have nothing to do with "Jezebel," the pagan Queen and 'type' of all those who "queer" people, into learning the "deep things of Satan."⁴² But however, you have not just received Jezebel's spokesman, Fr. James Martin, but done so 4 times, praising or honoring him in each case.⁴³ This same Fr. James Martin is the second most extreme moral heretic, in all of Church History, as only life-killing Catharism/Albigensianism was worse than the 'catch-all' of depravities known as Lgbtq-ism, and that there were not nearly so many Bible verses against that, as there are against this.⁴⁴ Never has Fr. James Martin publicly recanted any of this, but has instead gone anti-scriptural:

*"Where the Bible mentions [same-sex sexual] behavior at all, it clearly condemns it. I freely grant that. The issue is precisely whether the biblical judgment is correct."*⁴⁵

As for the church's practical response, have you never read Eph. 5:3 . . .

"But as for sexual immorality, and all uncleanness or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as befits holy ones"

. . . which should end all Lgbtq ministries in the church immediately, except those which view it as an illegitimate tendency to be controlled, or perhaps treated.

To the Church of Sardis, the Lord scolds the church for having the name of being 'alive,' but really being dead, and encourages them to remember what they received, and keep that. But which church is utterly, completely dead, even while having the name of being 'alive,' more than the Liberal Church of the Americas, created by . . .

- the innovative, cheapening "Spirit of Vatican II";
- not just barely passable glory-&-praise folk music, but jam-session-druggie-mantra-music, used in Holy Mass;⁴⁶
- the cult of youth, requiring high-cost, vane, feverish frenzies, such as World Youth Day;
- smaller parish-scale versions like LifeTeen, and Vacation Bible School;

They pretend to be alive, even as they hemorrhage youth to secularism, at astoundingly ineffective rates, because they leave the children empty, giving them nothing of . . .

To the Church of Philadelphia, Christ promises that he will make the competing Jews, come and bow down to them, and learn that He has loved the Christians, instead. Which religion physically bows down, 5 times a day in this prayer, but certainly never to Christians? Which religion is the theological successor to the Jews, a religion of the Flesh, rather than of the Spirit, just like the pharisaical Jews of Christ's time? Yes, Islam. And yet, we have seen Pope Francis do just the opposite, of what Christ does: Christ put an "open door" into Heaven before the Church of Philadelphia, "which none can shut." Here in our day and age, Christ has again put an "open door" in front of Muslims, by means of the technology of the Internet. But you, Pope Francis, have gone and honored—not Christianity, but—Islam, by creating a temple with them (& Jews) in Abu Dhabi,⁴⁹ syncretistically twice assuring them that "God wills a multiplicity of religions;"^{50,205205} while encouraging missionaries to not try to "proselytize" Muslims.^{51,52,53} Is there no clearer sign of shutting the door of Heaven to them, than to ecumenically fraternize with their leaders, and leave them to languish in heresy, despite the WIDE "OPEN DOOR" to them, which the Internet has provided? And as for the Christians of the Middle East, who have but little power, yet keep Christ's word & name⁵⁴, would it not be better for you yourself to behave as they do, accepting having little power, rather than being an ecumenical & geopolitical power-broker, trying to strike ecumenical bargains between God and the exceedingly shrewd modern Devils, on the scant chance that you yourself

To the Church of Laodicea, the Lord urges them not to be lukewarm. What papacy has been more lukewarm, more spewing of random blather, than the papacy of . . .

- the 'armchair' "Synod on Synodality," led by the lukewarm, governmentally-bankrolled, German Church of bloated bureaucracy?
- Liberal Progressivism, whose adherents only bother to show up at Mass on Christmas & Easter, and who never even act (much less vote) to sacrifice or restrict any vice or sin, lest it jeopardize their political-or-career-ambitions, their status in society, basically their 'social credit score' ?

III. Other Gospels.

We rebuke you, Pope Francis, because, like your predecessors, you have been such a friend of the world, which is "enmity with God,"⁵⁸ that you haven't just ecumenically welcomed other Gospels, nor just praised & promoted their worst proponents into audiences & offices within the Vatican, but even promoted these false Gospels, yourself, thus rightly deserving to be, in the Bible's words,⁵⁹ "accursed" by us:

"If anyone comes to you and does not bring this gospel, do not receive him into the house or give him any greeting, for whoever greets him shares his wicked work."

We condemn you for promoting the gospels of . . .

Ecology - Against which, the Bible counsels,

"Since the world is to be destroyed by fire, what manner of persons ought you to be? You ought to conduct yourself in holiness and godliness, as you hasten the day of the coming of the Lord."

There are 3 lessons here that you have not learned, Pope Francis:

1. that the destruction of the world is inevitable.⁶⁰ Indeed, the 3rd Trumpet, whose name "Wormwood"⁶¹ means "Chernobyl" in Ukrainian, may very well be coming in the next century, in Ukraine, and there is nothing that any human being can do to prevent it. But if anyone is causing it, surely Western nations under NATO share some blame, for repeatedly violating promises to not expand eastward, toward Russia, and for attempting to insinuate their Lgbtq immorality, and Neo-Marxism, into the East.

2. that the Christian is to be focused on the supernatural, not on creating a secular world utopian paradise, as your pontificate has frequently endeavored, through its two greatest encyclicals, through its excessive concern for Amazonian Christianity, and through its Antichrist-like³⁴ World Meeting on Human Fraternity.⁶²
3. that the Christian is to positively hasten the coming of the day of the Lord.⁶³ Indeed, the prayers of the saints are arguably what cause the pollution/destruction of 1/3 of each of the realms of the world, in each of the 7 Trumpets.⁶⁴ This punishment is "righteous," against those who have idolized various elements of creation,⁶⁵ destroyed or despoiled it,⁶⁶ and dispossessed or killed the rightful owners, the saints.⁶⁷

- your own obstinacy in not just holding the event, but then in recovering the rejected items, and returning them to religious use in St. Peter’s Basilica;
- the uncanny timing of Covid first appearing one month after the ceremony,⁷¹ maybe even beginning its incubation in those first three Wuhan scientists, on the very day of your garden Pachamama ceremony. Perhaps your ceremony, in the Supernatural Order, is personally responsible for those 7 million deaths?⁷² Others have noticed as much.⁷³ Yes, perhaps it was, as you conjectured, a case of “Mother Earth [Pachamama] throwing a fit,”⁷⁴ but perhaps a fit in revulsion, not at pollution, but at being worshiped, within the Vicar of Christ’s own garden.

Progress - Many schools of history have seen the world as an advance of progress, including Freemasonic Whig-ism, and your favorite one, Hegelian Neo-Marxism. You yourself have disparaged a backward mindset, preaching that one cannot remain in the past (“Indietrismo”), but must always move forward. This is not the Christian mindset. The Bible explicitly says, . . .

⁷² Time and again throughout history we see that the deeds of the church determine those of the world, as suggested by Scripture:

- Romans 8:28 – “All things work together for them that love the Lord.”
- Colossians 1:16-18 – “...all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church;”
- Romans 9:22-23 – “What if God, desiring to show his wrath and to make known his power, has endured with much patience the vessels of wrath made for destruction, in order to make known the riches of his glory for the vessels of mercy, which he has prepared beforehand for glory,...”
- Isaiah 43:3-4 – “I give Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and S[h]eba in exchange for you. . . . I give men in return for you, peoples in exchange for your life.

We also see examples of a king’s sin affecting his people:

- “If anyone adds to the words of this book, God will add to him the plagues described in it.”⁷⁵ Indeed, what fruit can be expected from Freirean Neo-Marxism, . . . which proposes to move beyond the old resurrection into a new critically conscious pseudo-“resurrection,”⁷⁶ . . . except plagues?
- that “Everyone progressing on, and not remaining in the teaching of Christ, does not have God, but the one remaining in the teaching has both the Father and the Son.”⁷⁷
- that we are to childlikely “abide in” “what [we] heard from the beginning,”⁷⁸ from our backwardness, from our glorious “Indietrismo,” which is “foolishness to the Freemasons, and a stumbling block to the Neo-Marxists.”⁷⁹
- Indeed, the Bible describes Christ’s death as “the end of history,”⁸⁰ that everything after that is merely a protraction, “until the full number of the Gentiles come in,”⁸¹ so that the early persecutions by Rome will return again, in the end, to everyone’s “amazement,”⁸² and thus it is true that there is “nothing new under the sun.”⁸³
- Lastly, it is an axiom of Theology that anything new is alarmingly suspicious,⁸⁴ which shows that the Theologian must have a default backward-looking-mindset.

Admittedly, you correctly advocated against a progress-mindset, in Fratelli Tutti 13. However, you have lamented backwardness (“indietrismo”) in liturgy, although God wants that,²⁸ so that the Bible speaks of a “Great cloud of witnesses,”⁸⁵ “those who have died and have gone before us marked with the sign of faith,”⁸⁶ to whose glorious triumphs we can never cease looking backward. Additionally, perhaps cued by a single usage of Pope Benedict,⁸⁷ you have replaced Pope John Paul II’s ubiquitous phrase “Christ the Lord of History,”⁸⁸ with Paulo Freire’s much more Deist and Hegelian-friendly phrase, “God of History.”⁸⁹

Neo-Marxism. You have most promoted the above progress-mindset by aligning yourselves with (Frankfurt School) “Woke” Neo-Marxists. Neo-Marxism is not just wrong because it is a form of natural utopianism, but because it is an actual counter-church, proposing . . .

- to save mankind,⁹⁰
- to end history,⁹¹
- to distribute Revelations,⁹²
- to be “prophetic,”⁹³
- to be a new revelation, a new Gnostic^{94,119,92} second ‘bite’ of the fruit of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good & Evil,⁹⁵ which all is directly against the Catholic belief in the “sealing [completion] of prophecy,” as of the death of the last apostle (St. John).⁹⁶

Neo-Marxist textbook strategy is to find and leverage as many intersectional victimhoods as possible to justify “dismantling” all institutions, identities, and ideas . . . indiscriminately, progressively, . . . and unendingly, without limit,⁹⁷ but especially ones that are obstacles to deliberately-planted Neo-Marxist, and/or sexually-promiscuous ‘moles’ & career-bureaucrats (“apparatchiks”) rising through Western hierarchies, in their planned “Long March” through all Western institutions,⁹⁸ but especially thru the Church. Now we know, to some extent, that you agree that this is wrong.⁹⁹

⁹⁹ Fratelli tutti, 13, 100, 134-136.

¹⁰⁰ Fratelli Tutti, 121, 124, 129-132, 148. The problem with perforating national borders is that some ideologies deliberately intend to grow their own populations at as fast a rate as possible, with complete disregard for sustainability, either out of wanton hedonism, or as a form of emigratory jihad. National borders were created precisely to prevent jihad. The logical outcome of giving asylum and citizenship to the fastest-reproducing parts of the world, is Ecological Destruction, and either War or World Islamic Conquest. The Bible expressly warns against this (Sirach 16:1): “Do not desire a multitude of useless children,” and (Prov. 29:21) “He who flatters his slave will find him his heir.” However neither of these will happen, for the Bible seems to tell us that Islam will only conquer 1/3 of the world (Rev. 8:7), that is, if Islam is indeed the 1st Trumpet. But what will happen, from inviting Muslims

- the unmarried Priesthood;¹⁰¹
- the male-only Diaconate¹⁰² (directly against 1st Tim. 2:12);
- the male-&-clergy-only Curia¹⁰³ (directly against 1st Tim. 2:12, especially insofar as women now appoint bishops);
- the Tridentine Mass;¹⁰⁴ etc.

... you have indirectly also advanced them in their strategy, regardless of whether you realized that you were doing so. But this “dismantling” is against ...

- the proper use of authority, which Paul triply reiterates to be for upbuilding, and not for tearing down;¹⁰⁵
- the Will of God, who wills that we retain our spirits, and not adapt them to a globalist agenda, nor suppress them to be un-controversial, or un-backward;^{106,28}

 - controlling the discussion, by locating it ...

into numerous Western countries, is that God will have to increase the population of other countries, to match and resist them, which will be the very opposite of what is good for the environment. This will end the West, and create future world history to be a battle between the competing populations of the Global South.

• “Governance” refers to corporations willingly letting themselves be controlled from Global nerve-centers, which of course is the 1-world-government “Beast from the Sea” (Rev.13:1ff) which we are all supposed to worship (vv. 12-18), and which you have worshiped in your entire encyclical Fratelli Tutti.

• “Our Common Home,” flies in the face of Gal. 4:26 (“But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother.”)

• “Equity” of course means strict “Socialism,” even Communism, which latter the Church has condemned as excessively materialistic. (Whatever happened to Luke 6:20 - “Blessed are the poor”?) Socialism, namely, the putting of the means of Charity into the hands of the government, is also objectively imprudent, according to Sirach 12:5, & Prov. 29:21. Almsgiving, like all forms of charity, it’s optional, and if forced by law, against one’s will, it spiritually “profits nothing” (1 Cor. 13:3). Furthermore, it will never eliminate poverty, as Mark 14:7 says. So Socialism then strips the Christian of ability to do good, and makes gratitude and allegiance more likely to be rendered unto Caesar, than unto God (Mark 12:17).

• “Colonizers.” Saying that colonization shouldn’t have occurred, is like saying that Jacob shouldn’t have bought Esau’s birthright; and Joseph shouldn’t have sold the Egyptians into slavery; that there shouldn’t be companies—vines and trees in scripture (John 15:5, Rev. 7:3, etc.), but only individuals—grass in Scripture (Isaiah 40:1); and that winning shouldn’t occur (against Ps. 37, Rev. 21:24, Dan. 7:27, Is. 60:6-12, etc.). Also, since “colonizers” often brought the gospel, the variant “ideological colonization” was introduced by Relativists, as a slur to disparage evangelization of any sort.

• Structur(es)-al - is a deliberately impersonal abstraction, designed to deprive institutions of their identity and value, pursuant to de-con-“structing” them, en masse. In supporting him, you also remind us also of Freire's partner, your ideological father, whom you try to canonize, that "Red Bishop" of Recife, Dom Helder Camara, a man who supported Socialism & Contraception, who went to Geneva expressly to inject Liberation Theology into the WCC (World Council of Churches),¹³⁵ and who was also the spiritual father of Communist-but-not-Catholic Klaus Schwab running the WEF (World Economic Forum).

In all these things, you have not rebuked your Neo-Marxist friends, as the Bible says you should,¹³⁶ and which is especially your job, as the universal teacher, and therefore "you incur guilt upon yourself."

Feminism –

Like your predecessors, you have permitted women to advance in degeneracy, as the Freemasons explicitly intended,¹³⁷ all in pursuit of the unsatisfying, illusion of feminist power, both . . .

- seductive, and
- corporate.

This is the most damaging of all false gospels, because it damages every family and parish, in the whole world.

Rights

You've complacently consented to speak of the relationships of women in terms of "rights,"¹³⁸ rather than in terms of "needs" and "vocations" to serve and fill those needs. Children need . . .

- fathers;
- mothers in the home;
- peaceful homes;
- a moral sense of . . .

 - the opportunity-costs of (not) marrying, rather than being told that "You can have it all: career, children, freedom, psychological happiness, etc.;"
 - the consequences (social, psychological, spiritual) of family-deprioritization-or-failure.

Women need . . .

- to feel needed.¹³⁹

¹³⁹ Ps. 113:9.

Indeed, the Western, Freemasonic, American over-reaching, over-application of “Rights,” to being the operative value regulating all interactions in society, completely usurping the conceptually equal metaphysical categories of . . .

- liberties/license,
- contractual entitlements,
- needs, and
- callings/vocations is a topic all in itself, worthy of its own encyclical. But here, it is sufficient to note, that it is entirely foreign to a Biblical mindset, which constantly speaks of voluntarily serving, rather than de-serving.¹⁴⁰

Connection to Socialism

Furthermore, whereas rights originally referred to a quasi-masculine right to act rightly, now they more often refer to a quasi-feminine right to receive benefits, even being applied to completely profane Socialist entitlements, even beyond one’s basic needs, to basically a state of indulged, royal childhoodness. This is what most women speak of, today when they say that they want “equal pay:” They want their pay rate to be determined on the basis of their ‘royalty’/‘nobility’/‘citizenship’-status. Whereas warrior-men, or landowning-men, used to rightly be viewed as the only true ‘peers,’ in society, and thus the only voters, everyone else being viewed as their personal commissions/charges, women also wanted the vote, just as a gratuitous favor, not because they themselves had in any way externally carved the society from nature, nor conquered it on the battlefield, women thus being without the slightest bit of true, authentic, authoritative justification to rule. Indeed, the Bible expressly warns against Socialistically gifting rulership to those not fit to rule (Isaiah 3), which is a parable of the folly and ruin introduced by inverting Social Order, to put endlessly-self-indulging women, or children, over hard-working men:

My people—children are their oppressors,
and women rule over them.
O my people, your leaders mislead you, and confuse the course of your paths. . . .

The Lord said:
Because the daughters of Zion are haughty and walk with outstretched necks, glancing wantonly with their eyes,
mincing along as they go,
tinkling with their feet; . . .

Your men shall fall by the sword and your mighty men in battle.
And her gates shall lament and mourn;
ravaged, she shall sit upon the ground.

¹⁴⁰ Matt. 5:39-40, Rom. 6:19-22, Matt. 22:38-39, 2 Cor.9:7, 1 Peter 2:5.

And seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, saying, “We will eat our own bread and wear our own clothes, only let us be called by your name; take away our reproach.”

Thus this false gospel of Feminism is also the genesis and driving force of the false Socialist gospel: Indeed, a Socialist state, with its bloated bureaucracy, disproportionately staffed by paper-pushing career-women, is like a giant corporate ‘woman,’ growing fatter and fatter, the more she takes managerial charge over ordinary life.

Your complicity

Pope Francis, you have encouraged all this. E.g., you’ve promoted women into very high positions in the Vatican, previously held by clergy, with one even appointing bishops, notwithstanding that Paul says, “I permit no woman to govern a man.”¹⁴¹ You’ve also called for “identical rights as men;”¹⁴² notwithstanding that you therein contradict yourself by elsewhere saying that,

*All other rights having to do with the goods necessary for the integral fulfilment of persons, including that of private property or any other type of property, should – in the words of Saint Paul VI – “in no way hinder [this [communal, i.e. Eminent Domain] right [over property]], but should actively facilitate its implementation”.*¹⁴³

Clearly, if property is a relative right, then those who have greater ability or need to use it, i.e. physically stronger, breadwinning men, should have more rights than those who don’t, i.e. women.

Indeed, a man needs a bigger income than a woman, if he is to fulfill his role as breadwinner. To ensure this, God gave man the greater abilities of having . . .

- more physical strength and agility, and
- more negotiating (vocal) strength, than woman, so that she would need him to help raise the children. Indeed, God, through Natural Law, intended that . . .

- men should be centrifugally oriented, outside the home, while
- women should be centripetally oriented, inside the home.¹⁴⁴

To forbid his employer from paying him more, as the average lucratively-minded employer already wants to do (thanks to a man’s greater abilities), incentivizes the destruction of the family: For a woman will be encouraged to . . .

- not ‘lock down’ her partner in legal marriage, as the principal support against financial ruin;
- value her partner less, thus fostering family strife;
- abandon her simultaneously natural and holy vocation of child-raising, in the home, for a profane, professional career, in the world;
- separate and/or divorce without financial penalty, and often with gross financial reward;
- scandalize other women, who copy their peers as reference-points.

If anything, laws should do the reverse, limiting mothers ability to be formally employed, out of concern for the needs of children!

¹⁴⁴ Prov. 31:10-31. If heathen can speak of “sexual orientation,” why can’t we speak of “vocational orientation”?

Immodesty

Additionally, since all humans, but especially men, are lustfully tempted, then like disabled and “challenged” individuals, we all have a need for societal counter-supports, against Concupiscence,¹⁴⁵ in favor of Morality. Dress codes have always served this purpose, even in non-Christian cultures, and therefore, all eyes have a need for sexuality-suppressing dress codes, which will more-so regulate women, whose bodies are the relatively more sexual, pursued objects of “the [hetero]sexual urge.”¹⁴⁶

What a scandal it is today, that complete heathens, Muslims, are universally more moral, in a Natural Law sense, than Christian women are. As you import Muslims into Europe, how do you not also see the Will of God, to shame and correct us?

One would think that the Mother of God hadn’t just warned us . . .

“Certain fashions will be introduced that will offend our Lord very much. . . . Woe to women lacking in modesty!”¹⁴⁷

One would think that we didn’t have the Word of God revealing that women are to be . . .

- “subordinate” to men, by the Lord’s “command”;¹⁴⁸
- below men, as their “head,” just as men are below Christ, and Christ is below God;¹⁴⁹

¹⁴⁵ Romans 7:8 speaks of “Concupiscence,” which theologians speak of as the tyrannizing of the animal senses over what rationality knows is right, and as as 1 of the 3 penalties of Original Sin, replacing instead the Prelapsarian Preternatural gift of [Sensual & Sentimental] Integrity.

¹⁴⁹ 1 Cor. 11:3. Time and again, it must be repeated that . . .

- —on the corporate level—the church is a woman, and that, as in a woman's body ordered to the production of new life, subordination does not necessarily imply lower dignity (as it does in a man's body, ordered to the production of mere work), therefore the members of the church should be absolutely unconcerned with ‘glass ceilings’ or other such divisions within the body's members (1 Cor. 12:17-19); so also,
- —on the individual level— by taking upon oneself, the gentle yoke of Christ, one's Flesh, including one's gender, descends to “find rest” at its natural level (Matt. 11:29), in approximate mirror-image-symmetry and counter-balance to how one's spirit arises to be seated with Christ, on high (Eph. 2:6). And therefore, “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven”(Matt. 5:3); and “the one that is greatest among you must be the servant of all” (Matt. 23:11, 20:26); and “the first shall be last, and the last shall be first” (Matt. 20:16); and “I who am your Lord and Master stoop to become your servant” (John 13:13-16); so that “the honor for all the faithful” is “to reduce to nothing those who were something” (1 Cor. 1:28), indeed to “bind their nobles with chains of iron,” (Ps. 149:8-9), so that he who was set “for the rise and fall of many in Israel” (Luke 2:34), “rejected of men” (Is. 53:3), and who “suffered outside the city” (Heb. 13:12, cf. Rev. 14:20), “may become the firstborn of many [sisters and] brethren” (Rom. 8:29), and so that “she who was barren and did not bear” (or other such disgrace) “may enlarge the place of her tent,” (Is. 54) and perhaps even become mystically identical to that bride, who is the Church, and her mother.  - as functionally equivalent to being without prideful hair;¹⁵¹
 - as a natural act of humility, in the presence of . . .
 - God, as the focal point of all liturgy;¹⁵² before whom no flesh should glory,¹⁵³ with themselves, and particularly their hair, being “the glory/glamor of men,”¹⁵⁴
 - The holy angels, whose intellects, like men’s intellects, proceeded gloriously from God without any feminizing modification directed to loving children;¹⁵⁵
 - so that women will be vertically in orderly cooperation with the graces descending down the angelic hierarchy,¹⁵⁶ rather than interfering, by radiating graces from this natural, ‘fleshy’ realm, below, which would be askew or conflictingly oblique to the cascade;
 - their own propensity to passionate social-chatter, as if ordained men, holy angels, and God were not present;¹⁵⁷
 - men’s propensity to lust, or at least concupiscent distraction;

- following the example of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the highest non-divine person, in the order of Grace,¹⁶¹ who nevertheless did all of the above.

In view of all this, and the wholesale deterioration of behaviors by women today, it's necessary that . . .

- women be required to wear veils in church, preferably designed to actually hide the hair, rather than to tease it thru lingerie-like transparency;¹⁶² which will promote propriety, order, and peace,¹⁶³ and grace.
- the worldwide shoulder-and-cleavage-flaunting bridal-industry, which has been captured and exploited by voluptuously-minded women designers,¹⁶⁴ must be decisively stopped at the church door, . . .
 - because it is sacrilegious to dress like that in church, even for a bride;
 - because the whole industry is so prohibitively expensive as to dissuade marriage;
- women must cease to fill liturgical functions (eucharistic ministers, lectors, altar servers), when men are present, as if . . .
 - Vatican II's "active participation" were something external, and not originally intended to be internal;¹⁶⁵
 - external participation is a right, or entitlement;
 - the church needs to appease, atone for, or strike any balance between the sexes;
 - as if the sexes are identical in anything, even in dignity;¹⁶⁶

¹⁶¹ Rev. 11:19-12:2.

¹⁶² Indeed, the whole raison d'être for Middle Eastern veils, which lasts to this day, and which Paul was speaking of, is to hide glory/glamor, rather than to display it. Nevertheless, the transparency does have admitted benefits: (1) It is reminiscent of the clouds of Heaven; (2) it does seem to complement general liturgical artistic extravagance, such as Gothic architecture or laced-or-embroidered-vestments. Perhaps a good compromise then, would be to permit transparency at important feasts; and of course at weddings (Rev. 19:8), where the bride's linen is described as "bright" (Greek λαμπρόν / "lampron") obviously promoting glory/glamor, rather than hiding it.

¹⁶³ Song of Songs' repeated phrase "my sister, my bride" (4:9, 4:10, 12, and 5:1), conveys that women are actually more attractive to men, in an enduring, healthy, rational, non-concupiscent (C.f. Footnote 145) sense, when they de-emphasize and curtail their incidental, accessory, "surrounding" (1 Cor. 11:15 περιβολαίου) feminine glory/glamor, and limit themselves to just the essential, thereby appearing more like a generic human (incidentally, more like a no-frills boy). For all these accessory protuberances (e.g., streaming hair, clothing, or jewelry; glinting lipstick or skin), while advertised as supposedly "glamorous," really just distract and confuse the male mind's apprehension, frustrating it; and really serve no legitimate purpose, except perhaps to hide uglinesses; but then the man's mind worries that he is being invited to idolize her accessories, being "deceived" (Prov. 31:30) into buying (into) something ugly, by the crazy 'clown show' of illusions; but the man's mind finds intellectual peace when it can unhinderedly focus on just what is essentially her, without even a "wrinkle" getting in the way (Eph. 5:27), and for that, her extreme humility in self-expression is necessary.

¹⁶⁵ The Latin isn't "active participation," but "actuous participation" in Paul VI, 14-21 in "Sacrosanctum Concilium: Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy," Vatican, December 4, 1963, accessed July 17, 2023 at vatican.va/archive/hist_councils/ii_vatican_council/documents/vat-ii_const_19631204_sacrosanctum-concilium_en.html.

This conveys interior zeal, rather than exterior 'busybody'-ness.

As for active participation at Mass being interior, see Pius XII, 28, 31-37, 98-99 in "Mediator Dei," November 20, 1947, accessed July 17, 2023 at vatican.va/content/pius-xii/en/encyclicals/documents/hf_p-xii_enc_20111947_mediator-dei.html.

¹⁶⁶ 1 Cor. 11:7. Men's and women's dignity is only approximate. On closer inspection examination, differences appear: E.g., Men are more dignified than women, by being more "in the [rational] image and glory of God."

- women and girls are more-so in the liturgical image of “ministering” angels, when in fact men and boys are;¹⁶⁷
- women, whose voice and nature is designed for child-level play, should cause the parish to seem to be ‘playing with,’ the Grace of God;
- liturgy is play;¹⁶⁸
 - as if the goal of liturgy were immaturity, rather than “to grow into the mature manhood of Christ.”¹⁶⁹

IV. Abdication of Kingship.

We rebuke you, Pope Francis, because you have . . .

operated as the head of a coalition of misfits. This is not how a King acts, for a king is the head of a united kingdom, of a virtuous people; whereas, you have led like an Emperor, a person who cares merely about achieving and maintaining pragmatic control, ‘by hook or by crook,’ using any power from anywhere. To this end, you have despised the Curia,¹⁷⁰ promoted the weakest, most pliable and controllable protégés everywhere, regardless of their lack of beliefs or morals. . . .

- Gays – as your pliable, manipulatable, even blackmailable, conscience-less ‘Yes’-men;¹⁷¹
- Feminists – as your ‘do-nothing’ Curia-clogging careerists;¹⁰³
- South American Liberation-Theology (Neo-)Marxists – as your thinkers;¹⁷²
- Chi-Coms – as your likely financial donors;¹⁷³

(Consequently, men are also more un-dignified, in their sins.) Men and women’s dignity is only identical, maybe, in those non-gender-specific, Rational aspects which come directly from, and respond directly to, the infinite God.

The false notion that liturgy is play will be exponentially multiplied by the presence of child altar servers; to whom the contrasting idea, that liturgy is (what it really is) serious adult and public work, is essential to controlling their wandering minds and limbs.

Indeed, you have perhaps even done all this, because, like all political pawns, you knew that you would never have received a mandate expressly to dismantle (for no Roman-Catholic-loving electors would've voted for that), but that to be elected in the first place, you'd need to assemble a coalition by guile, by promising, to pay back favors, later, on the sly, no matter how destructive for the church's interests & prestige it might be. • Dignitatis Humanae 1. Insofar as it was non-dogmatic, Vatican 2 was therefore completely fallible, because infallibility only extends to dogmas (Donum Veritatis 23), which are things found in Divine Revelation, and so, by making itself "non-dogmatic" it also made not just some, but all its documents fallible.

¹⁸⁷ Is. 5:21.

¹⁸⁸ 1 Cor. 3:20.

¹⁸⁹ Prov. 10:19.

“Do you not know that the holy ones will judge the cosmos? And if the cosmos is judged by you all, are you unworthy to judge lesser things? Do you not know that we shall judge angels—no less earthly beings? And if you judge the earthly ones, do you then seat the most despised [earthly men, as judges] within the church? I say this to your shame: Can it be that there is none amongst you wise enough to be able to judge?” (1 Cor. 6:2-5)

Pope Francis, you have not only “seat[ed] the most despised,” i.e. Biblical Publicans, earthly U.N. bureaucrats, people who often have no respect for our religion, in the judgment-seat of the “Church,” i.e. in the Roman Curia, but you have then gone and added incompetence to this treason, by yourself refusing to judge anyone! Do you not know that Catholic Bishops are the Theological successors to Old Testament kings, both messianically anointed to rule the people?¹⁹⁰ For example, you have counseled seminarians never to deny absolution,¹⁹¹ a counsel which simultaneously suggests both

- that a tyranny of individual conscience . . .
 - should dictate its personal Will;
 - should even tyrannize over well-known, clearly stated, ecclesiastical & even divine laws; and
 - even if disorder, murmuring, or scandal should result;
- that conscience is not in fact something which, under normal, non-contractual circumstances, only negatively forbids, but something which positively absolves oneself! This is not just dangerously subject to biased escapism, but it totally disregards what Conscience actually is, namely, the conclusion of the Judgment of Practical Reason!¹⁹²
- that refusing absolution or other ecclesiastical penalties could have no useful role, in educating & challenging such an uninformed conscience to do better;
- that better informed clergy should check all their superior knowledge at the door, and become mere, unthinking, automated cogs in a machine, like spiritual, doting parents reducing themselves to the intellectual level of a child.

But your most destructive abdication of authority, in real terms, has been Amoris Laetitia Chapter 8, which has greenlighted moral anarchy, resulting in blessing obstinate sinners everywhere.¹⁹³ Indeed, it repeats rank untruths:

¹⁹⁰ See video. Just as the Deacon corresponds to the Old Testament [OT] prophet, anointed to preach; and just as the Priest corresponds to the OT priests, anointed to offer sacrifice; so also the Bishop corresponds to the OT king, anointed to rule.

¹⁹² I.e., when one thinks,

“X is wrong, and

this is X,

therefore this is wrong.”

Indeed, your policy would change this syllogism, this moral calculation that is conscience, to read

“X is okay, and

this is X,

therefore this is okay.”

But such a calculation can't be responsibly made, because there are 3 separate parts of any act, and the standard of okayness is “Bonum ex integra causa, malum quocunque defectu,” namely, that all 3 parts of the Act (Circumstances, Moral Object, and End) must be good, not just the “this” (the Moral Object). Therefore, honest conscience, indeed honest conscientiousness, is always suspicious that there might be some other aspect of the act, usually some unconsidered circumstance, which might render it immoral: Conscience, then, if it does anything, is therefore always taking the safer route, and either forbidding, or asking for endlessly more guidance, and almost never (except in highly, highly morally-trained individuals) confidently absolving. This is why we must “Work out [our] salvation, in fear and trembling” (Phil. 2:12). In conclusion then, what average Consciences are certainly NOT doing, is precisely what your policy is encouraging, namely letting them dictate, to themselves, and (insolently!) to more knowledgeable priests, why they think they should be absolved.

- “The way of the Church is not to condemn anyone for ever;” against the historical Rite of Excommunication¹⁹⁴ and the numerous powers of excommunication articulated in the Bible.¹⁹⁵
- “No one can be condemned for ever, for that is not the logic of the gospel;” against the true logic of the gospel which is “He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God,”¹⁹⁶ and “He that rejects me, and receives not my words, has the thing that judges him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him on the last day.”¹⁹⁷
- That the Catechism’s mention of “ignorance, inadvertence, duress, fear, habit, inordinate attachments, and other psychological or social factors”¹⁹⁸ has anything whatsoever to do with a solemnly and publicly made, sinless vow like marriage, when, in reality, these mitigators have to do only with sudden, unprepared-for sins.
- That “. . . there is a need to avoid judgements which do not take into account the complexity of various [divorcee] situations,” against the violent brutality of the cross: “He who loves father or mother . . . son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and he who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for my sake will find it.” “I beat my body every day.” “You have not yet resisted Sin, to the point of shedding blood.”¹⁹⁹

Indeed, we find here a total disregard for the true victims of divorce-and-remarriage:

- the peace-and-faith-losing children;
- the voiceless, divorced ex;
- the honor of Christ & his Bride the Church, whose resolute fidelity they are not even attempting to match;
- the scandalized community who must humor their guilty conscience’s constant ‘peekaboo’ attempts to extract affirmation.

But the true culprits here, are the pastors, ambassadors of lackadaisical, nonchalant, cowardly acedia, studiers of the artistry of excuse-making psychology, who lower expectations, lull people to sleep, and give the impression that . . .

- everyone has a right to their own chosen journey to the cross, irrespective of personal culpability, with the church there as a willing accomplice, to bulldoze their chosen path through the goads and hedges;²⁰⁰
- expiation via serious penances are a thing of the past, an icky, awkward cruelty.

We also find here a total disdain for the historical office of penitents. Penitents are people who have repented and been forgiven, but are expiating a crime’s consequences that are too far-reaching for them to be able to undo. The mere acknowledgment of the damage caused is exceedingly salutary for the community. It reestablishes the rights of justice, and reinforces the destructiveness of sin, as well as the lesson that lives, souls in purgatory, and clean consciences are all worth fighting for, even if it involves significant pain or time.

- Freemasonry ?
- All earthly Paradises and Utopianisms?
- Liberalism & Americanism²⁰⁴ ?
- Marxism & Neo-Marxism, especially those of Critical Theory, Paulo Freire, & Mao Tse Tung ?
- Syncretism, such as the belief that God antecedently wills a "diversity of religions," or that Christ & Christianity are just the "privileged way," but not the only way to the Father?²⁰⁵
- All Paganisms, including New Age, Hinduism, Incan Pachamama-ism, and "Earth Spirituality"²⁰⁶?
